

Improving Web-based Legal Research

Legal Research on the Web

Legal researchers spend an increasing amount of time seeking information from the Web for researching cases and issues, monitoring news on clients, markets, and industries, and keeping current on trends and legal news. Finding and using information in an efficient and effective manner is key to harnessing the full potential of Web-based research.

Introducing SurfWax LawKT™ to Streamline the Research Process

SurfWax LawKT is a new and innovative Web-based service that improves productivity, lowers costs, and helps law firms make more efficient use of information on the Web by integrating multiple, full-text search capabilities into one, easy-to-use interface.

LawKT gives legal researchers the power to rapidly find information not readily available through major search engines while using unique, time-saving tools:

Multi-source Integrated Search

One-stop access to information across multiple sources – from local newspapers to legal publications from the world's largest law firms – to help legal researchers quickly locate the information they need.

Summarization

Interactive summaries of documents enable users to rapidly reach information within a body of text without opening the document.

Knowledge Capture and Collaboration

Secure, Web-based repository for saving, managing and sharing research.

LawKT is 100% Web-based, easy-to-use, and virtually maintenance-free. LawKT requires no installation, saves IT costs and staff development time, and comes with complete on-line Instructions and Tutorials. It is available to firms of any size.

Two versions of LawKT to meet your research needs

LawKT-Lite – One-stop searching of law firm publications, news, and government sites.

LawKT-Pro – Highly customized searching of targeted sites including law firm publications, news, US code, practice areas, government sites and more. Individual user accounts, information capture and collaboration tools, and extranet capabilities.

LawKT-Lite -- Overview

LawKT-Lite is a quick and easy way for firms to take advantage of our unique capabilities.

- Delivers one-stop searching of over 30,000 publications, client alerts, articles, and newsletters from more than 150 of the world's leading law firms. Stay ahead of journals and court decisions; keep abreast on what other law firms are saying.
- Provides one-stop access to news and information not readily available through single Web sources. News from multiple sources is uniquely sorted by date to help you quickly access breaking information to better serve your clients.
- Increases Web productivity by offering advanced meta-search capabilities across major search engines. LawKT saves time spent navigating through sites and delivers more efficient access to information from government sites and the broader Web.
- Reduces time spent managing links to Web resources, automatically checks for stale links, and provides a sharable repository for links, shared research, and documents.

LawKT-Pro -- Overview

LawKT-Pro is our comprehensive Web-based service that extends LawKT-Lite by combining advanced search and document management capabilities into one integrated process.

Multi-Source Searching

Highly-targeted searching specific to law and covering thousands of sources; many not available through major search engines. The searching of targeted sites yields relevant search results, faster. Features available only from LawKT-Pro include:

- Searching of over 40,000 law firm publications from more than 200 firms.
- Searching of multiple News sources with results sorted by date.
- Simultaneous meta-searching of thousands of law-related sites.
- Flexible "SearchSet" technology to easily create custom meta-search capabilities. For example a law firm could construct a SearchSet consisting of semiconductor news sources such as DigiTimes, The Register, Silicon Strategies, the Fabless Semiconductor Association, and more.
- All features integrated into one single user interface - no need to navigate through a variety of web pages.

Best Use of Search Results with Document Saving and Sharing

LawKT-Pro improves research efficiency with unique features that help users make the best use of search results:

Summarization

- Real-time interactive document summarization to rapidly reach information within a body of text without opening the document.
- Content extraction across multiple document types/formats.

Information Capture and Collaboration

- Personal, secure Web-based repository for capturing, organizing, and managing research information and documents of any type.
- Access to repository from anywhere at anytime.
- Easy sharing of documents between users through managed groups.
- Easy archiving and annotating of Web pages and documents.
- Seamless information for clients and firm members - extranet.

Content Aggregation

- View all your research at once.
- Summarize research to quickly locate information.

LawKT-Lite makes it easier and less expensive for law firms to take advantage of our unique tools and service. As your needs change, you can easily upgrade to LawKT-Pro -- our more comprehensive Web-based service with multiple accounts and secure repositories, information capture and collaboration tools, extranet capabilities, and highly targeted, multi-source searching across hundreds of law-related sites which can be customized to your needs/sectors.
